NOTICE

As directed by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, UGB, this is notified for information to the all concern that in order to address the grievance/dissatisfaction by the candidates of UG Part I and Part II (Honours) Examinations 2018, the following corrective measures have been adopted:

1. All the students who are willing to reassess/recheck their answer scripts shall have to apply to the concerned Principal/TIC of colleges from 18.02.2019 to 05.03.2019. It is also informed that the following exemptions from University's standard reassessment rules will be made for ensuring greater interest of the student community:
 - (a) No restrictions on number of papers for reassessment/recheck. Hence, a student can apply for reassessment/recheck of any number of papers/modules as per their wishes.
 - (b) Complete exemption of application fees for reassessment/recheck. Therefore, students will not have to pay any application fees for reassessment/recheck paper(s).
 - (c) A student can apply for reassessment/recheck irrespective of the marks obtained in paper (s)/module(s) in UG Part I and Part II (Honours) Examinations 2018.
2. Students are requested to apply in plain paper stating grievances/dissatisfactions with supporting documents (as attachment) to their concerned Principal /T.I.C of colleges or to the Grievance Cell at UGB campus from 18.02.2019 to 05.03.2019.
3. Even if students are not satisfied with their results after reassessment, they will have scope to physically see their answer script(s).
4. The application for reassessment process as mentioned above, however, be done by the students via online mode (at www.ugb.ac.in) on and from February 20, 2019 to March 5, 2019, without any fees.

Therefore, all are earnestly requested to do the needful accordingly.
