Press Release

UG Part I & II (Hons) Examinations 2018 was published on 14.02.2019. However, some print media and college authority highlighted some disputes/errors in connection with the published results and bring it into the notice of the University Authority. In this backdrop, after due consultations with the Controller of Examinations (Addl. Charge) and as per the direction of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, UGB, the University Authority has decided in order to ensure the greater interest of the student community and to address the grievances/dissatisfactions of the students and their parents, the following corrective measures will be implemented with immediate effect.

1. All the students who are willing to re-assess/recheck their answer scripts shall have to apply to the concerned Principal /T.I.C of colleges from 18.02.2019 to 05.03.2019. It is also informed to all students concern that the following exemptions from University's standard reassessment rules will be made for ensuring greater interest of the student community:
 - (a) No restrictions on number of papers/modules for re-assessment/ re-check. Hence, a student can apply for re-assessment/re-check of any number of papers / modules as per their wishes.
 - (b) Complete exemption of application fees for re-assessment / re-check. Therefore, students will not have to pay any application fees for re-assessment/ re-check paper (s).
 - (c) A student can apply for re-assessment/ recheck irrespective of the marks obtained in paper (s)/ module (s) in UG Part I & II (Hons) Examinations 2018.
2. Students are requested to apply in plain paper stating grievances/dissatisfactions with supporting documents (as attachment) to their concerned Principal /T.I.C of colleges or to the Grievance Cell at UGB campus from 18.02.2019 to 05.03.2019.
3. Even if students are not satisfied with their results after reassessment/recheck, they will have scope to physically see their answer script(s).
